—Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hurst have returned from a business trip to Louisville.

—Mrs. John Wright is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Cochran, at Elizaville.

—Mrs. Martha Vimont is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Munzing, in Mayville.

—Claude Dailey, of Ravenna, is visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Dailey.

—Rev. P. F. Adams, of Flemingsburg, visited his son, Cadet Adams, at M. M. L. Friday.

—Miss Horton was born in Millersburg, while her father was pastor of the Methodist church here.

—Miss Lyda Rice, of Lexington, has returned home after a visit with her sister, Mrs. F. E. Peterson.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will have a bazaar and sale of edibles, November 3.

—Miss Nannie Burroughs was called to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Mattie Ringo, of Mexico, Mo., who is seriously ill.

—Misses Margaret and Edith Wood spent the week-end with their mother and sister, Mrs. Ben Wood, and Miss Hattie Wood.

—Mrs. Laura Layson is visiting relatives at Avon.

—Mrs. Dave Clarke and little daughter are visiting Mrs. Ernest Henson, in Bluefield, West Va.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bryan McMurtry, of Cynthia, are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Sanford Allen.

—Mrs. J. V. Ingels has returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Dowden, in Eminence.

—Mrs. Allie Miller entertained a number of friends with a six-dinner Friday in honor of Miss Mary Miller, of Atlanta, Ga.

—Rev. W. J. Slater, pastor of the Millersburg Christian church, has presented a complete set of Shakespeare's work to the library of the Millersburg High School.

—Millersburg Military Institute defeated the Lancaster High School football team here Saturday by the score of 18 to 0. The feature was a sixty-yard run for a touchdown by Stone, and the all-round work of Martin, Linden and Reese. Lancaster's fullback played an excellent game.

—Through an oversight, mention of the exhibit of old relics at the community agricultural fair was omitted in preparing the catalogue for publication. Please remember this exhibition and bring or send in any old relic or heirloom to the music room of the High School building on or before Thursday, Oct. 13. A premium of $5.00 will be awarded the rarest relic exhibited.

—Keep in mind the Community Agricultural Fair at High School, October 14. This is being held to create an interest in improved agriculture and schools. Competition is solicited in all departments and no charge for entries. The departments consist of swine, sheep, poultry, agricultural products and culinary department, ladies' fancy work, old family relics, etc. For complete premium list write or ask for a catalogue.

—An exhibit of old relics and heirlooms will be held in the music room of the High School building on October 14, in connection with the Community Agricultural Fair. Persons having anything of interest are asked to bring it to the High School building before the date of the fair, with a short history of the article, and the owner's name attached. Misses Nannie Clarke and Hazel Kerr have been appointed a committee to receive and care for the exhibits.

—The following invitation has been received by a number of friends here:

"Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Clark Horton invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter Elizabeth Miller to Mr. Harold Grinnville Pettit on Wednesday morning, the twelfth of October, at ten o'clock First Methodist Episcopal Church, South Lexington, Ky. At Home November the tenth 17 Mentelle Park."

—Our usually quiet little town was considerably stirred up Sunday morning when it was learned that Town Marshal R. T. Murray had been shot by Prince Johnson, colored. The Marshal, accompanied by Harry Linville, as deputy, and carrying a search warrant, went to the home of Johnson, who was thought to have whisky for sale, to investigate the matter. Johnson objected to the officers searching his premises, and proceeded to empty the contents of a 22-rifle, one shot striking Murray, which is thought to be serious. Johnson was overpowered and taken to Paris jail. Murray was hurried to a Lexington hospital.
